2022 MEDIA KIT

ABOUT ABRIELLE

Hi there! I am a blogger, influencer and social media connoisseur with a background in radio, TV, and PR. I have been on all sides of media, but one thing that has stayed the same throughout my endeavors is my love for all things connection and communication. Nothing makes me feel better than helping a woman feel beautiful, healthy and inspired in her own skin. By visiting my website and social media accounts, I hope to provide my followers with a happy sanctuary full of life, love, beauty, travel and knowledge. My goal is to leave each and every person I come in contact a little brighter than when they first logged on.
